SPECIAL CLEARANCE AND ISSUANCE PROCEDURES

(TL:VISA-174; 01-12-1998)

Posts should request an SAO for Central African Republic diplomats or officials being permanently assigned to the Embassy of the Central African Republic in Washington or to the Central African Republic Mission to the United Nations in New York. SAO requests are not required for G-4 visa applications. Individuals temporarily assigned to or attending meetings at one of these offices or missions are no longer subject to SAO requirements. All telegrams dealing with this issue should be slugged for CA/VO/L/C, AF/C, S/CPR, and IO/UNP, with an info copy to the U.S. Embassy, Bangui (if application is made in a third country).

NONOFFICIAL TRAVEL

(TL:VISA-287; 05-29-2001)

None.

OFFICIAL TRAVEL

Department Concurrence Required For Certain “A” And “G” Visa Cases

(TL:VISA-287; 05-29-2001)

The government offices of the Central African Republic have been unable or unwilling to meet their financial obligations in the United States. Therefore, all “A” and “G” visa applications (except G-4) of Central African Republic (CAR) nationals who will take up permanent assignment on behalf of the CAR Government at a CAR mission or at an international organization require the Department’s concurrence prior to visa issuance. Applications for officials or employees of an international organization (G-4) or for temporary official travel to events such as the United Nations General Assembly, may be processed at post without seeking the Department's prior authorization. All SAO requests should be slugged for CA/VO/L/C and AF/C, S/CPR, and IO/UNP, with an info copy to Amembassy Bangui if the application is made in a third country.

DOCUMENTS AND RECORDS

Police Record
